

Light Up Papua New Guinea

The Captain Nichola Goddard Project

Gala Fundraiser
May 2, 2008

Together let's illuminate lives!

Our daughter, Captain Nichola Goddard, was killed on May 17, 2006 in Afghanistan. In keeping her memory alive, we have created a project which relates to her place of birth, Papua New Guinea. Nichola felt a very strong connection to her birth country and its' citizens.

So, in conjunction with the University of Calgary, we have undertaken a project with Light Up the World to bring solar light to over 1800 first aid posts around Papua New Guinea. These aid posts provide medical assistance to citizens. With this project, these posts will be able to provide this vital service to the surrounding communities 24 hours a day.

In July 2008, we plan to light up the first 205 of the 1800 aid posts. By July 2011, we hope to complete the project and have all 1800 aid posts lit up. This is an aggressive goal, and we need your help to accomplish it.

On May 2, 2008, we are initiating the first annual Light Up Papua New Guinea, The Captain Nichola Goddard Project Gala Fundraiser. May 2, 2008 would have been Nichola's 28th birthday and we want to celebrate it!

Fittingly, Christie Blatchford of the Globe and Mail has graciously offered to be the key note speaker. Christie is the author of Fifteen Days: Stories of Bravery, Friendship, Life and Death from Inside the New Canadian Army, in which she followed individual soldiers in Afghanistan and tells their story. Nichola's story is a chapter named "17 May 2006".

Don Martin, who is a national affairs columnist, based in Ottawa and writes for the Calgary Herald and The National Post, is our master of ceremonies for the evening.

We invite you to take part in this adventurous event with a silent auction contribution. With your generous contribution, we can accomplish our goal.

By sponsoring an item of your choice to the silent auction, you will receive the following:

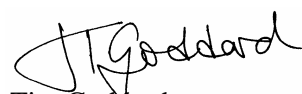

- Description of your item and name in the evening program
- Prominent display on the silent auction table

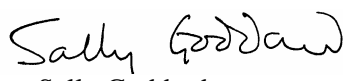

Attached is a silent auction contribution form. Fill out this form and send it in today.

For more information on how you can participate please call Judy McCaffrey at 288-8486 or email at jmccaffr@telus.net. For more information on the event, please visit our website at www.lutw.org and follow the links.
